

(February 1, 2018)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Colorado's Premiere Yoga Festival Announces 2018 Yoga Lineup
Eighth Annual Hanuman Festival June 14-17 Offers Internationally Renowned Leaders in the Health, Wellness & Global Service Community

(Boulder, Colorado) February 1, 2018– Hanuman Festival announces the addition of world-renowned yoga teachers to the 2018 line-up, including Tommy Rosen, Kia Miller, Amy Ippoliti, Gina Caputo, David Newman and Sadhvi Bhagawati Saraswati. The festival, scheduled June 14 – 17, is held in beautiful Boulder, CO and features more than 25 top yoga teachers including Seane Corn, Gurmukh, Tiffany Cruikshank, Sianna Sherman, Gurushabd, Govindas & Radha, Ashley Turner, Dayna Seraye and many more!

Hanuman Festival believes now more than ever, people need yoga and are excited to host the eighth annual national reunion of health and wellness practitioners, promising a vibrant and transformational experience for the thousands of health-conscious attendees who flock to Colorado for this one-of-a-kind festival.

VIP, 3-day (Friday - Sunday) and Thursday Immersion passes are now available. On Thursday, June 14, world-renowned teachers Gurmukh and Seane Corn are scheduled for half-day Immersions that will allow the practitioner to spend more time on a particular topic. Immersion details.

The location of Hanuman Festival is on the scenic grounds of the Boulder High School's great lawn next to Boulder Creek, adjacent to the Boulder Farmer's Market. The Community Village will feature over thirty conscious exhibitors and sponsors selling and sampling everything from clothing to jewelry to art and food. Participants can gather in a community tent to eat and relax while enjoying the shade. The Community Village will host a daily morning meditation led by local Boulder teacher Yashoda Devi Ma, as well as daily community yoga classes, community workshops, musical acts, wisdom talks and panel discussions throughout the day. Ceremonies are scheduled throughout the weekend to unite communities together and are designed to honor the heritage of yoga. Friday and Saturday night festivities will feature music by world-class artists, including a kirtan with Govin Das and Radha, David Newman, Katie Wise and Bhakti Explosion. Full line-up to be announced in Spring.

Hanuman Festival creates a safe and sacred space for conscious communities to learn and grow, so we may uplift and inspire the world. "Hanuman Festival is committed to its hometown roots, as we grow as a healthy, conscious lifestyle event," said Festival Director Yoshi Aono.

"Through internationally-renowned teachers and leaders in the worldwide movement for conscious living, Hanuman expects to attract thousands of participants from across the nation."

3-day passes (Friday – Sunday), Thursday Immersion, and VIP tickets are currently available. Class registration will be available in the spring. Additional ticket options, including single-day and single-class passes will be available in the Spring on a space available basis. Tickets can be purchased online at www.hanumanfestival.com. Registration closes on Tuesday, June 12.

Hanuman Festival is sponsored by SunWellness Companies, SunWater Spa and SunMountain Center, and is supported by partners such as International Yoga Festival, SF Yoga Magazine, Yoga Revealed, Tribal Markers, Bhakti Fest, Give Back Yoga, Telluride Yoga Festival, Yoga Basics, Yoga Outlet, Shine Restaurant, Bali Spirit Festival, San Diego Yoga Festival, and over 20 yoga studios and teachers across the country including Raj Yoga Studio, The Subtle Mind, and Corepower Yoga. Boulder High School will help host the Festival.

In dedication to the namesake (Hanuman the monkey God in yogic philosophy), Hanuman Festival is committed to giving back and in 2015 founded Hanuman Adventures for practitioners to participate in hands-on service projects around the world. Hanuman Adventures features extraordinary yoga retreats with a unique focus on Seva and sacred sites in conscious community. Hanuman Adventures will travel to the birthplace of yoga, Rishikesh, India, in March 2018. Yogis can also expand and grow in their yoga practice from the comfort of their home with the more recently launched online education platform, Hanuman Academy, which features the Five Elements of Yoga and Radical Self Mastery - Sattva Yoga with Anand Mehrotra.

###

Media Contact: Courtney Love
Email: courtney@hanumanfestival.com
Cell: 415-810-8924